

Collaborative Advocacy: Keeping Interests At the Table and Deepening Without Drowning

Advanced Training with Jacinta Gallant

Jacinta Gallant is a collaborative lawyer, mediator, and conflict trainer from Prince Edward Island, Canada. She has extensive academic and professional dispute resolution training and teaching experience. Jacinta is a former member of the Board of Directors of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP) and a member of the IACP Training Faculty. She has delivered highly acclaimed training throughout North America, the UK, Australia and, most recently, in Japan and Hong Kong. Participants consistently praise Jacinta's energy, wisdom and ability to challenge conventional approaches with insight, respect and practical tools.

This advanced training will focus on working more effectively with what matters to the parties in collaborative cases. Participants will learn interest-exploring and negotiation strategies, and an easily adapted tool for collaborative teams to organize “what matters” as they move through the options generation and settlement stage of the collaborative process. Jacinta will introduce the “Insight Approach” to conflict and offer new ways of thinking about the conflict we see in collaborative cases, and how asking about the parties’ hopes and their perceived threats can help us facilitate a deeper dialogue in collaborative cases. Participants will learn how to use what is learned in the process to promote an authentic shift from conflict to collaboration, without forcing or faking it.
